

Class of 2012 Maritime University Graduates: Pathways to Employment

Applied Arts & Sciences and Professional

Who graduates with Applied Arts & Sciences and Professional degrees?

26% of Maritimers
19% of non-Maritimers

26% of female graduates
21% of male graduates

OUTCOMES 2 YEARS AFTER COMPLETING FIRST DEGREE
Employment Rate	92%	91%	94%
% Working Full-Time	89%	82%	54%
Job requires university education/management	78%	70%	68%
Job related to studies/program skills used	93%	91%	93%
Earnings (median)	$57,440	$54,732	$42,699
Full-Time Earnings	$59,800	$57,944	$55,686

All Employed

Majority have made the transition: Two years after the first degree, 38% had pursued further study, with just 20% still in school

For more information and methodological notes see: Trends in Maritime Higher Education Class of 2012 Maritime University Graduates: Pathways to Employment Vol 13, number 2

