

Class of 2012 Maritime University Graduates: Pathways to Employment

Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences

Who graduates with Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences degrees?

41% of Maritimers
43% of non-Maritimers

45% of female graduates
33% of male graduates

OUTCOMES 2 YEARS AFTER COMPLETING FIRST DEGREE

	No Further Studies (34%)	Pursued Further Studies (31%)	Still in school (35%)
Employment Rate	85 %	87 %	89 %
% Working Full-Time	81 %	78 %	31 %
Job requires university education/management	34 %	53 %	41 %
Job related to studies/program skills used	62 %	68 %	60 %
Earnings (median)	$36,000	$39,999	$18,651
Full-Time Earnings	$37,524	$43,619	$40,000

Transition still underway for many:
Two years after the first degree, 66% had pursued further study, with more than one-third still in school

For more information and methodological notes see: Trends in Maritime Higher Education Class of 2012 Maritime University Graduates: Pathways to Employment Vol 13, number 2

