

Class of 2012 Maritime University Graduates: Pathways to Employment

Physical & Life Sciences and Mathematics

Who graduates with Physical & Life Sciences and Mathematics degrees?

17% of Maritimers
17% of non-Maritimers

16% of female graduates
19% of male graduates

OUTCOMES 2 YEARS AFTER COMPLETING FIRST DEGREE
Employment Rate	87%	83%	88%
→ % Working Full-Time	85%	84%	37%
Job requires university education/management	34%	58%	58%
Job related to studies/program skills used	69%	67%	64%
Earnings (median)	$39,022	$46,447	$23,896
Full-Time Earnings	$40,232	$49,400	$33,916

All Employed

Transition still underway for majority: Two years after the first degree, 74% had pursued further study, with over half still in school

For more information and methodological notes see: Trends in Maritime Higher Education Class of 2012 Maritime University Graduates: Pathways to Employment Vol 13, number 2

