Source: Data provided by the institutions. Tuition fees are unadjusted and unweighted. Where there is a range of different fees in a faculty, the lowest tuition is reported. All fees are rounded to the nearest dollar.
n/a: not applicable

² Nova Scotia offers students who are residents of the province a credit rebate as per the Nova Scotia University Student Bursary Program. The following link provides more details on the program: <https://novascotia.ca/university-student-bursary/> These rebates are not deducted from the tuition fees as presented.

⁴ The fees presented for Canadian students are for residents of Nova Scotia. Out-of-province Canadian students pay higher fees.
