The Impact of the COVID-19 Pandemic on Degree Progression

The MPHEC has released today a report on the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on student enrolment and their progression towards a first university degree during the 2020-2021 academic year. Overall enrolment in the region in fall 2020 remained stable despite a decrease in the number of first-year students and international students. The report reveals that students who were already enrolled in a Maritime university in 2019-2020 re-enrolled in greater numbers during the first year of the pandemic than in previous years.
